

Final Project Demonstration and Report Grading Rubric (Total: 30 Points)

1) Presentation (Total 5 Points)

- Content (3 Points): Content is relevant, informative, and well-aligned with the project objectives.
- Clarity and Structure (2 Points): Presentation should be well-organized, with a clear flow that logically progresses through topics.

2) Q & A Session (5 Points)

- Responsiveness (3 Points): Responds to questions promptly and accurately, demonstrating a strong understanding of the project.
- Communication Skills (2 Points): Communicates answers clearly and effectively, ensuring that explanations are understandable.

3) Code Quality (5 Points)

- Functionality (3 Points): Code accomplishes the tasks it is meant to, with no critical bugs.
- Readability (2 Points): Code is well-organized, commented, and follows standard coding practices.

4) Live Demo (10 Points)

- Execution (5 Points): The live demo runs smoothly without significant glitches or interruptions.
- Feature Demonstration (5 Points): Demonstrates all key features effectively, showing how they address the project goals.

5) Project Report submission (5 points)

Report submission: (2 points)

Code submission: (3 points)